SUBJ: Demonstrations

1. Baltimore, Md.

The meeting concerning Gwynn Oak Park, ordered early this morning, ended without reaching an agreement. Mr. Robert Jow Lowrey, Chief of Police, said that they did not expect an announcement today. No demonstrations were planned for this weekend.

2. Cambridge, Md.

Mr. Cleveland Harris has been present in Cambridge during recent demonstrations. He has also been in other Eastern Shore communities. Harris is the legislative director of the Los Angeles Committee for the Protection of Foreign-born which is affiliated with the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign-born.

3. Dayton, Ohio

The Rikes Department Store in Dayton was picketed on July 18, 1963 by CORE representatives. There were no incidents.

4. American Nazi Party - Virginia

The F.B.I. has received information that, with regard to the American Nazi Party, the Commonwealth attorneys of the State of Virginia will determine if the recorded speech by members of that party are in violation of a Virginia Statute. The statute prohibits inciting riots by the white or colored people. The representatives of the ANP have been touring Virginia to encourage people to stage a march in Washington.

5. New York City

In New York City demonstrators continued to picket at the office of Governor Rockefeller and the City Hall on a 24-hour basis. Three pickets were at the Governor's office and six at City Hall.

Also in New York City, demonstrations continued at the construction site of the medical center in Brooklyn on July 18, 1963. Demonstrations were also held at the Rutgers construction site in New York City. A spokesman indicated that the demonstrations would be spontaneous as at all of these demonstrations there were no arrangements and no incidents.

6. Cambridge, Md.

There were no demonstrations in Cambridge on the evening of July 18, 1963. Governor Tawes will appear on Maryland radio and television on the evening of the 19th to discuss the racial situation.

7. New York City

The demonstrations at the White Castle restaurants continued yesterday and ended at 12:15 A.M. on July 19 without incident. A representative of the White Castle restaurants said that the issue is a quota system of hiring and contends that CORE is asking 25% of the employees be non-white, i.e., Negro or Porto Rican. A spokesman for the restaurant said that the number of employees that it hires depends upon its business requirements.

CORE representative said that three more White Castle restaurants may be picketed on a 24-hour basis at a future undisclosed date. Mr. Luke Doomer Nationalist Party will counterpicket White Castles at Allerton Avenue and the Boston Road in the Bronx.

8. Dunnellon, Florida

The McDilda's Cafe in Dunnellon was picketed on the 18th of July by a small group of pickets. A sheriff's deputy questioned the pickets and arrested a white picket when he refused to move to allow a car to leave the area. The man arrested was Dev Aleony and he was arrested for vagrancy and resisting arrest. He was put on $1500 bond and was remanded to the Marion County jail at Ocala. Aleony is the CORE field secretary, and he had told the CORE chapter president, Betty Wright, that he had been beaten. She indicated that she would "phone Washington."

Sheriff Willis said that Aleony was injured in his cell but other prisoners said that his injuries were determined to be minor. He was removed to a separate cell.

9. Danville, Virginia

In Danville, a mass meeting was held at the New Hope Baptist Church on the evening of July 18. Approximately 85 persons attended. Rev. J. M. Lawson of the SCLC was the principal speaker. He urged the persons in attendance to continue demonstrations on a non-violent basis and said that a workshop for demonstrators would be held on July 19.

A Rev. L. Campbell who had just returned from New York City, advised the group that the demonstrations must continue on July 19 and through the weekend if the people there wanted assistance from the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Ralph Abernathy will be the speaker at tonight's meeting.

Sheriff H. L. Wynn advised that three Negroes came to his office in Chatham, Virginia on July 18 to inquire about the Negro demonstrators from Danville in his jail. They indicated that unless these prisoners were released by July 24 they would peacefully picket in Chatham. The sheriff indicated that if the demonstrations were peaceful there would be no arrests.

There were no arrests for demonstrations in Danville yesterday.

10. Prince Edward County, Va.

In Prince Edward County, Virginia, a meeting is planned for July 22, 1963 to get volunteers for future demonstrations. The meeting will be held at St. James Church.

11. Panama City, Florida

The NAACP youth organization plans sit-ins in two drug stores and two Jitney Jungle stores in Panama City, Florida on July 18 and 19.

The NAACP plans a parade on July 20 in this city.

12. St. Augustine, Florida

Sixteen Negro demonstrators were arrested in Saint Augustine when they refused to leave drug stores. Seven were juveniles and were released to parents. Nine adults were charged with trespassing and released on bond. The NAACP has not protested the arrests.

13. Dunn, North Carolina

There was picketing in Dunn of Dafford's Funeral Home and a food store on July 18. The food store closed early and the picketing ended at 1:00 P.M. at the funeral home and at 8:30 P.M. at the store. A NAACP spokesman said that three demonstrators were struck by a hit-and-run driver in front of the Red and White store. The local police advised that the alleged driver of the car was in the area approximately one hour before the incident occurred and they believe the allegation is unfounded.

14. Kingston, North Carolina

In Kingston, 40 Negro youths paraded downtown for two hours to protest the ordinance requiring a permit to picket. There were no incidents.

15. High Point, North Carolina

At High Point there was a small amount of peaceful picketing yesterday without incident. At Wilmington, North Carolina about 150 Negro teen-agers demonstrated at the county jail protesting the confinement of Rev. David W. Jones. There were no incidents or arrests.

16. Thomasville, North Carolina

At Thomasville, a shot, probably a 38 calibre pistol, was fired through a window near a pulpit during an NAACP meeting at the First Baptist Church, Negro. The incident occurred about 9:30 P.M. and there were no reported injuries.

17. Williamston, North Carolina

Approximately 175 Negroes in Williamston met at a church and then marched through the streets to picket the Shamrock restaurant. Four Negroes were arrested on charges of trespassing and they were then released. There was no violence. Mr. Golden Frinks, the demonstration leader, indicated he would contact the Department of Justice and the state Governor's office to obtain further police protection. The police chief, Lloyd Banks, said that he thought the protection was adequate.

18. New Bern, North Carolina

Sixty-eight Negroes, all over 16, were arrested in New Bern and charged with obstructing a sidewalk and refusing to disperse at the request of a police officer. They were

SUBJECT: Demonstrations in Charleston,
South Carolina

On July 16, 1963 the following demonstrations occurred:

At about 10:35 a.m., 94 Negro youths demonstrated on upper King Street. At about 11:30 p.m., 300 Negro adults gathered and sang songs and prayed at City Hall.

At about 12:15 p.m., about 94 Negro youths marched to Condon Department Store and demonstrated there. Around 200 p.m., 204 Negro youths marched from Emanuel Church and demonstrated at the Ft. Sumter Hotel. During the above demonstration there was only one arrest and that was of one Negro man for a traffic violation.

At 10:50 p.m. there were about 400 Negro demonstrators gathered together on the streets of Charleston in the Negro section. They were asked to move on and, according to the police, refused and shortly thereafter bricks were thrown at police officers and one officer was wounded. Seventy-three demonstrators were arrested shortly after this time. Mr. Carter, who is the local attorney for the NAACP, said that he and Mr. Cook and Mr. Brown, two other NAACP officials, attempted to see the police chief to arrange bond for the group at 12:30 p.m. last night. He states that they were surrounded by police officers and ordered to leave the police department. Local police were reportedly reinforced by a number of state highway patrolmen during the early hours today.
